

Start Feeling Better Today!

Enjoy a perfect pick-me-up...without the over-stimulation of caffeine!

For your convenience, Sun Eleuthero comes in tablets, liquid extract and tea bags. The tablets and liquid extract are derived from the plant's potent root, which are aged for up to 300 years. The tea is made from tender green leaves, harvested at their peak.

Whichever form you decide to take, you'll enjoy the gentle revitalizing powers of the ancient herb known to scientists as Eleutherococcus senticosus. The tea is soothing and aromatic, providing a perfect alternative to a cup of coffee. The liquid extract is a delicious elixir that you can drink undiluted or add to the beverage of your choice. And the tablets can be enjoyed with every meal and are convenient for nutrition-on-the-go.

Every form of Sun Eleuthero is pure, natural and caffeine-free.

ATTENTION:

Sun Eleuthero is extremely gentle, more so than other adaptogens, and can be taken every day. Of course, it's always a good idea to consult your doctor about any supplements you take.

and more alive.*

FEEL THE ENERGY OF
SUN ELEUTHERO

Increased Endurance

"Your products are everything you say. They have helped me to get out of the slump I was in. More energy, better digestion and increased endurance. Plus Sun Eleuthero has helped me immensely for my brain power...It's a dream come true. Thanks a lot."

— Robert Mattin, Minnesota

What A Difference in Energy!

"I have been taking the Sun Eleuthero tablets for about 3 months and what a difference it has made...I own a dry cleaning business and work about 12 hours a day. I became very exhausted at the end of the day, but thanks to Sun Eleuthero, I am not as tired when I get home."

— Sandra Lee, California

Improved Physical Performance

"I have been using Sun Eleuthero for the past year...Since using your products, my coach has recorded an increase in my weight-training progress and I am more energetic in the program...I am 75 years old and use your products every day. I feel that my energy level is great."

— Harvey Ribbens, Minnesota

SUN ELEUTHERO

A 2,000 Year-Old Herbal Tradition

Power-Packed With Natural Energy

Supercharge Your Energy With Sun Eleuthero

Eleuthero is an ancient herb that is power-packed with natural energy. Cherished throughout the East for its revitalizing powers, Sun Eleuthero can increase your energy and improve your stamina... without the jitters and let-down effect of caffeine.

Although related to Korean and American ginseng, which can only be taken for short periods of time, Sun Eleuthero is gentler and can be taken every day.

Get More Accomplished, Every Day

The subject of numerous scientific studies, eleuthero is linked with the remarkable ability to help:

- ❖ boost your level of vitality
- ❖ improve your endurance and physical performance
- ❖ protect you from the damages of stress
- ❖ promote a sense of calmness

Peak Performance, Even During Stress

The story of eleuthero stretches from ancient China to outer space. Treasured by the Chinese for 2,000 years, eleuthero was rediscovered by Soviet scientists, who had given it to Olympic athletes and cosmonauts—making eleuthero the first herb in space!

Today, millions of Russians take eleuthero to enhance their physical vitality, while in Japan, eleuthero is wildly popular with businessmen, who use it to cope with the stress of work.

Feel Stronger, Calmer, And More Energized

Why is Sun Eleuthero such an effective energy booster? The answer lies within its unique properties as an “adaptogen.” Neither a drug nor medicine, an adaptogen has been defined as “a non-toxic natural substance which reinforces the body’s ability to react to stress.”

In fact, the active properties in eleuthero “possess a pronounced general strengthening effect...and raise the physical capacity for work,” according to famed Russian scientist, Dr. I.I. Brekhman.

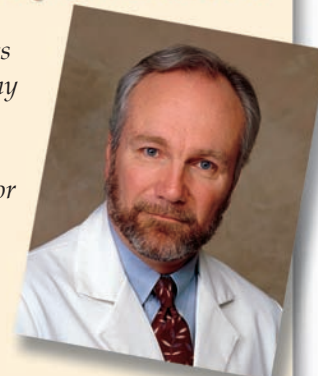

Sun Eleuthero is grown in remote wilderness, unlike typical eleuthero, which is artificially cultivated. The resulting herb is unmatched in strength and purity.

"I Tell My Patients: Try Sun Eleuthero!"

I personally love nutritional supplements and Sun Eleuthero is my long-time favorite. As a nutritional consultant, I know exactly how good eleuthero is for my body. I have noticed a significant improvement, especially when I'm out riding my mountain bike.
